After your child has finished reading, read the questions aloud. Instruct your child to write an answer below each question or on a separate sheet of paper if needed. Instrucciones (Español): Pídale su niño que lea el siguiente pasaje. Cuando haya terminado de leer, lea las preguntas en voz alta. Dígale que escriba una respuesta después de cada pregunta o, si es necesario, en una hoja de papel separada. The Boat Race Mr. Shawn Sloan has a fast new sail boat. He hauls it to the lake to launch and float in the sun. Ms. Joan Beem has a little, old, green sail boat. She launches her boat at the lake and sails around the cove. Both Shawn and Joan look at the sky as the geese fly over them. The breeze brushes their cheeks as they gaze at the geese. Before they can stop, Shawn's boat bumps into Joan's boat. He grins when he sees the little old sail boat. "Look at my new, fast sail boat," boasts Shawn. "The breeze can make my boat sail while I roast in the sun." "My sail boat might be little and old but if I caught a strong breeze, it could go very fast," croaks Joan. Shawn points to a cove. "Do you want to race to that point over there?" asks Shawn. Shawn and Joan race their boats to see which boat can sail to the cove first. Shawn's boat catches the breeze and goes out in front. Around the blue lake they sail. Shawn pauses to look for Joan's boat. "Oh no," Shawn sighs. "Joan's boat is very fast too." Joan's little old boat catches the breeze and joins Shawn's boat.
